I was followed back in the plant by Tommy and was told to clock out and was escorted out ^{off the} by _{building} another line supervisor. I returned to work Monday, Nov 14, 05 because they refused to give me a slip saying I was fired but that's what they did falsely. I clocked in at 7:00 am on that Monday

Nov 14, 65 about 9:00 am I was called back in the office and told I no longer had a job and Jerry said the Company considered me a quit. I Lakaisha Gallaher am a young black African American that was discriminated against. My civil rights were violated that caused me pain and suffering. My name was slandered.

I am still trying to seek Justice. I am asking the Court if may have a trial, and a juror if the Courts would reopen my case. I am asking if I may have a court date and time to appear before the court. I am asking the court to please hear my voice.

I am also asking the court for a motion of Counsel. If the court would please appoint me an attorney due to my poverty. I do not have any money. I have not been able to have my day in court due to my poverty. No lawyers will not and did not take my case because I don't have any money to put down. I am asking the court to please help me.

I live in a country where I'm free and one nation under God with liberty and justice for all no matter my race or gender and if mine are taken away where does that leave me as an American Citizen. I have been crying out for several years in hope that Justice will be served.

Once Again I'm asking the Court to please ReOpen my case and set me a trial with Jurors, that I may present my case before you one last time. This I present in good faith that the truth will stand. I don't understand all the court procedures and rules. It has caused my case to suffer and maybe even destroyed, all due to my poverty. Please allow a voice to go before me to complete what I'm not able to, that I may get a Fair day (trial) in Court.

April 6, 2012 Sincerely,
Lakaisha Gallagher
